'High risk' typically means businesses which:

- handled and served ready-to-eat foods that may contain pathogenic microorganisms and support their growth, and
- also had known risk-increasing factors such as:
 - potential for inadequate/incorrect temperature control (reheated or hot-held food),
 - larger scale of operations (employed more than 10 people),

 - supplied directly to at-risk customers (child care centres; nursing home caterers).

High risk businesses require at least one programmed inspection per year.

Q2. Number of fixed premises food businesses categorised as medium risk? *

'Medium risk' typically means businesses which:

- handled (incl. cooked, thawed) foods that may contain pathogenic microorganisms and support their growth
- served ready-to-eat foods that may contain pathogenic microorganisms but not generally support growth, or unlikely to contain pathogenic microorganisms but may support growth if present
- served high- and medium-risk, ready-to-eat foods only portioned before receipt by the customer

'Low risk' typically means businesses which:

Q11. Number of authorised officers engaged in food regulatory work over the 12 month reporting period? *

This is the total number of people (head count) appointed as authorised officers under the Food Act 2003 that have conducted any food regulatory work in the reporting year. This is regardless of whether they are full time, part time, consultants or responsible for other work as well. The response must be an integer.

Example:

A council with 1 full time authorised officer, plus 2 authorised officers who work on food part-time for 25% of their time plus 1 contractor appointed as an authorised officer working 25% of their time on food would answer 4. A separate person appointed as an authorised officer who did not perform any food regulatory work in the year is not counted.

Q12. Number of full time equivalent (FTE) authorised officers to fulfil food regulatory duties? *

'FTE': the number of authorised officers required to undertake council's level of food work (as per previous question) if they had worked full time on food.

Example:

A council with 1 full time authorised officer who works only on food (1 FTE), plus 2 authorised officers who work on food part-time for 25% of their time ($2 \times 0.25 \text{ FTE} = 0.5 \text{ FTE}$), plus 1 contractor appointed as an authorised officer who works 25% of their time on food (0.25 FTE) would answer 1.75.

Q15. Number of primary inspections conducted for mobile food premises? *

Comments

Q40. Please provide any comments/explanations to support the data in your submission

Q.13 A number of food businesses weren't operational for a part of the reporting period due to the COVID-19 situation. Q14. & Q15.
